Ask me about my job

Without porters, cleaners, IT staff and medical secretaries, to name but a few, our NHS simply wouldn't work. That's why - following on from our successful week in 2016 - UNISON is organising a One Team week to celebrate the contribution our members make to patient care.

With the theme of “Ask me about my job” the aim is to raise the profile of vital members of the NHS team who are so often overlooked by patients, politicians and the public.

Last year branches held lots of events to raise the profile of these staff and to give everyone the chance to thank them for the work they do. This year we want more of the same and we are encouraging all health branches to get involved by organising events to give our members the chance to describe what they do for patients, their families and the NHS.

Don't miss this chance to support the union's One Team for Patient Care campaign and to celebrate the important work of our members. Get planning your event now.
